THURSDAY, MAY 23. Hoe hands are now in demand by the

The livery stables of the city are doing a thriving business now. Mr. A. W. Adams, of Seneca, spent a day in the city last week. Miss Annie Jones, of Hartwell, Ga., is visiting friends in the city.

The crop of Spring oats has been out off considerable by the dry weather.

Hon. Jas. L. Orr has been suggested as a candidate for Mayor of Greenville.

Bathing in the creeks and river is now the most popular sport among the boys. Several of our citizens attended the Firemen's Pic Nic at Walhalla last Tues-

Hon, Fred. Stewart, the "Jumbo" druminer, has been spending a few days in the

Mr. Andy Brown sold two hundred quarts of strawberries in the city last Saturday.

Anderson has fewer loafers now than she has ever had before at this season of Work was begun last Monday morning on the Merchants' and Farmers' Bank bailding. There is said to be a scarcity of $100 bills, but we must confess that we hadn't noticed it. Nearly every stranger who visits Andorson compliments the beautiful water oaks on Main street. Mr. C. E. Humphreys has gone to Bradley, S. C., where he has charge of the depot on the A. & K. R. R.

An Anderson girl says she saw a twenty-five cents young man wearing a six A new comet, save an exchange, is coming this way, and can be seen with the naked eye about the last of May. Mr. Walter Brock, one of Hones Path's most popular and worthy young men, spent Monday night in the city. The pain wash is being used freely in A number of our citizens are having th residences repainted.

kerosene with a rag when you o put your stoves away for the will prevent them from rusting. Mr. sa. Mahaffey, of this County, had a horse to die of blind staggers while visiting friends in Laurens County recently. . The city is beginning to assume a Summer appearance, and the merchants and business men generally are having a quiet

On account of failure to make the necessary arrangements, the proposed picnic of the Baptist Sunday School has been post-

Col. J. R. Cochran's family have moved from Walballa to Anderson, having rented Mrs. McCully's residence on Main Rey, J. D. Tadlock, D. D., one of the Professors in the Seminary at Columbia, preached in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday. Rev. T. M. Bailey, D. D., State Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Baptist Church, preached in this city last Sunday. Mr. J. S. Starke, one of Abbeville

County's popular young men, paid the INTELLIGENCER a pleasant call last Mon-The Quarterly Conference for the Wes Anderson Circuit will be held at Providence Church next Saturday and Sunday, 25th and 26t inst. An old farmer says that so far this Spring has been a repetition of 1882, the year in which such abundant crops of all kinds were gathered.

Mr. O. B. VanWyck, of Salisbury, N. C., is spending a few days in the city with relatives. His friends are delighted to see him at his old home once more.

Last Friday Mr. John Tucker, of Hopewell Township, had a valuable horse to die of blind staggers. This disease is getting to be common in the County. There are a number of fine patches of small grain in and around the city, but the best patch of oats we have seen is on River street, and belongs to Mr. F. M.

Mr. Robert Ligon came home from Spartanburg last week quite sick, and is still confined to his room. We join his many friends in wishing him a speedy re-

Rev. Sam. Small has been very ill in Atlants, and for that reason has not been able to fill his appointment in Anderson.

As soon as his health will permit he will If you want to purchase one of the best baby carriages and one of the best refrigerators, call on G. F. Tolly, who is selling them at very low prices. See adver-Hon. W. D. Mars, one of Abbeville County's leading citizens, died at his home near Mt. Carmel last week. He was at one time a member of the State Our young friend, Frank McGee, who is engaged in business at Toccoa, Ga., came home last Saturday quite sick and is still confined to his room. We hope he will soon be himself again. with new furniture. It is expected to arrive in a few days, and will be placed in home on the railroad track. It shows the always buying things on credit, and never the Court Room at once. It has been meeded for a long time.

"I see more energy displayed and more improvements being made in Anderson than I have seen in any other town or city that I have visited in the State." said a drummer the other day. Should a young man be careless of his shoe laces 'tis said that he will be as neglectful of his wife, but in case he laces his shoes very tight he will be attentive, but very stingy toward her. Mr. H. N. Reid, of Augusta, Ga., spent a day in the city last week, and, as usual his numerous friends were glad to see him. There is not a more clever drummer on the road than he. We are requested to announce that the closing exercises of Belton High School (colored) will take place on Friday, 31st inst. Dr. J. J. Durham, of Columbia, will deliver the annual address Married, on Thursday, May 16th, 1889, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. D. H. Hammond. by Rev. G. M. Rogers, Mr. E. L. Owen and Miss Josephine Hammond, all of Anderson County.

There will be a special meeting of the the members are urged to attend prompt-we went courting we never called it by that name.

Our prices for printing bill heads envelopes, etc., are very low. When you need any stationery send your order to the INTELLIGENCER. We use steam power, and can turn out work on short On our first page this week we publish

By reading it you will learn more about the work and the habits of the little the Carolina system of the R. & D. R. R. "busy bee" than you have eyer known The wooden store room, which has been occupied by Messrs. McGee & Ligon, has been purchased by Mr. S. Bleckley, who has had it torn down and removed to a a most interesting description of the bee.

lot on McDuffle street, where it will be Simpson, Reld & Co. are offering most excellent floor paint to their customers, and they also call attention to their big stock of paints and oils. Read their new advertisement, and if you need any paints give them a call. List of letters remaining in the Postoffice for the week ending May 21: Mrs. Lizzie Brown, E. L. Cockrel, C. P. Davis, Miss Charity Davis, John Dixson, Violet Johnson, E. A. Ramphy, Marshal Sailor, S. W. Westbrook. Capt. O. Witter, of Pelzer, spent Tuesday in the city, and while here paid the In-TELLIGENCER a pleasant call. Capt. Witter is the popular proprietor of the Pelzer Hotel, and came over to see our new hotel with a view of making an application to rent it.

The tri-weekly accommodation train which has been running between Anderson and Lowndesville has been discontinued, and hereafter the train will run only on Saturdays, leaving Anderson at 7 o'clock p. m., and returning at 9.25 o'clock p. m.

The School at Smith's Chapel will close its Spring session on Friday, 31st. A number of the pupils will read essays, and pleasant day is in store for those who ittend. The patrons and friends are invited to attend and to bring their dinner

The Young Ladies' Society of the Presyterian Church will serve refreshments on the lawn at Mr. A. B. Towers' residence this (Thursday) evening at 61 clock. We bespeak for them a liberal patronage, for the proceeds will be donated to a worthy object.

Mr. Ben. McAlister, formerly of Anderson, but who has been residing in Alabama for several years past, returned to his old home last week. He has been in had health for several months, and it is hoped that his visit to his old home will estore him to his normal condition.

A gentleman, accompanied by his wife and four children, passed through the city last Monday en route to the mountains. They were from Tallahassee, Fla., and were travelling in a large two horse wagon. The gentleman was quite sick each County of the State. Provided both when he reached Anderson, and had to this amount, with the privilege of increasing the capital if desired.

Miss Leize Whitner, of this city, has at Toccoa last November. Miss Whitner s represented by W. C. Benet, Esq., of Abbeville, who spent several days in Atlanta last week in the interest of the case.

Walhalla Courier : "Our townsman, Mr John Kaufmann, has the contract for furaishing the lumber for the erection of the enement houses of the new factory at Anderson. It is said the contract calls for about 500,000 feet of first-class lumber, and no better saw mill man than Mr. Kanfmann could have been selected to fill the bill.'

The City police are making a thorough investigation of the premises of our citi- who had just returned home, it would of Health. The city is in a very clean and perhaps destroyed all of t' condition, and the Board propose to keep it.so. If your premises, therefore, need the building, and also to having entered cleaning, and the police call your attention | the house and stolen the jewelry, a part of to it, you should have it attended to at which has been recovered. Trial Justice once, or you may be put to some trouble | Todd made a preliminary investigation

Miss Minerva Drake, who has been eaching school near Easley, S. C., has gone to Richmond, Va., where she will spend her vacation in attending the city schools and in completing a course in Drake is one of our most popular teachers, and the INTELLIGENCER joins her many friends in wishing her a pleasant sojourn isement was handed in too late for insertion this week, but look out for it next week. In looking over it, we notice that they have just received a big lot of rubber belting which they are offering at low prices, and that they have a number of special bargains in various lines of goods which they will offer to the trade for the next few weeks. The Board of School Trustees for An derson District met on Tuesday and received the petition in reference to the establishment of a Graded School in this city. The petition was closely examined, and it was found that it did not contain the names of a majority of the property owners of the District, as the law requires, and consequently the Trustees could not take At Brown Bros. store there is on exhibition a "work of art." The picture represents our young friends, Thomp. Breazeale and Will. Anderson, who were left by the train recently at Pendleton, tramping beats and irresponsible persons, who are gait the young gents were traveling, and care whether they pay for them or not. quotes several sentences that were uttered | The honest consumer it will not hurt, but by each in reference to the walk, the

The Sylvester Bleckley Co's, new adver-

"Why didn't you raise your hat to that young lady?" asked a young man of his companion a few afternoons ago as they the young man, "the rim of my hat is furnished to each member, and no breaks loose from the crown every time I raise it, and I can't afford to buy a new hat every week." Hereafter, young ladles, if a young man does not raise his hat to you, you may know the reason for it.

inst., says: "Treasurer W. H. Frierson, into their section will do to give credit. tributors pay more than four-fifths, it of Anderson, made a settlement with the | When an honest man moves from one comptroller general to-day. The following section to another, very often he can inis a summary of the settlement: Total | troduce himself by referring to the Agen- a burden as would paralyze trade, manu-State tax levied, $25,789.05; treasurer's cy. The Agency is a good thing, and here- factures and industry, and bankrupt the commissions, $420.82; left with sheriff for after the name of every man who can, but community. It should not tax the stockcollection, $165.14; abated by the comp- will not, pay his honest debts will be known troller general, $13.53; paid into State throughout the South.

Brown & Sons' clever salesmen, left the its reorganization since the war last Moncity last Sunday morning, accompanied day night, and the occasion was a most by several young ladies, to attend the pleasant one. The members of the Divis-Singing Convention which met at Mt. ion assembled in the Hall and marched Pisgah Church, in Brushy Creek Town- to the Court House, where a large crowd (Friday) evening, at 8½ o'clock. The ship. They arrived in due time, enjoyed had already assembled. Mr. L. P. Smith meeting will be an important one, and some excellent music and a sumptuous presided. The exercises were opened with dinner, and Mr. Henderson had a most prayer by Rev. C. B. Smith, after which cordial hand-shaking with a host of his the presiding officer gave a brief sketch of many articles, such as brass, iron, dam-Marion M. Mattison, of Donnaldsville, friends. He says a very refreshing showS. C., spent a night in the city last week.

Fig. said he came to Anderson to have his and that the farmers of that section are the creator for the evening. As Mr. Mar. He said he came to Anderson to have his and that the farmers of that section are the orator for the evening. As Mr. Marhair cut. Now, that is very complimen- hard at work, are in fine spirits, and are shall arose from his sent he was received tary to the Anderson barbers, but when looking forward to making a big crop this with a loud burst of applause. He at once year. Brushy Creek is a good place for entered into his subject with his usual any one to go to have a good time. | energy and eloquence, and for about forty | S. C.

Anderson County's successful lawyers. and a genial, whole-souled gentleman. all that tends to the common need, and among the foremost in the accelerating progress of his city." Mr. G. R. Talcot, the Superintendent of Company, visited Anderson last Saturday.

and was met by quite a number of our citizens. From the conversation with him, we feel confident that at no distant day Anderson will have a new passenger depot, and if the Central Railroad authorities will come in it will be a union depot, located at the Blue Ridge Yard. It is amusing to listen to some of the fish stories told by the gentlemen who went on

Georgia. One gentleman vows he saw a will live to celebrate many more anniverfish as big as the one which swallowed saries. Jonah, and that it would certainly have swallowed him had it not been for the fact that one of his companions threw his quid of tobacco at the monster fish, and it so completely filled up his mouth that he did not have room enough for anything else. An exchange says verily do we live in a progressive age. Following in the wake of "progressive luncheous" and "progressive dinners" and "progressive card parties," we have now "progressive conversation assemblages." A programme, arranged like a dance card, is provided; the topics to be discussed are numbered upon it. Engagements are made previously and entered on the card for the discussion of each topic, to which a stipulated number of minutes is allowed. At the tinkle of a bell, subject and partner are both changed. Judge Cox reached home last Monday from the Southern Baptist Convention, and is again at his post of duty. He spent several days on his return at Chattanooga and other places, and reports a most pleasant trip. The other delegates who went from Anderson returned last week, and all say Mempuis had a larger crowd than she could entertain. The Church in which the Convention met was not large enough ble to get into the building.

The State Superintendent of Education has appointed July 3rd, as the time for the competitive examination for the appointment of State beneficiaries in the Winthrop School from each County in the State. The examinations will be held at the same time at each County seat, and will be similar in character to the usual County examinations. The successful applicant will receive the State appointment, equivalent to $150 per one session of nine months, and the one ranking second will receive the scholarship for tuition given by the Winthrop School to examinations are satisfactory.

The County Alliance is called to meet Last Thursday a number of the prominent citizens of Pendleton held a meeting to consider the practicability of establishing a Bank in that town. $15,500 was subscribed, and a committee was appointed to meeting. It is the farmers who are interested in cotton bags and courteous attention so generous that every sub-Alliance in the County be represented in the meeting. It is the farmers who are interested in cotton bags and courteous attention so generous while lately conducting us over the Georgia Central Railway lines to Ogeechee, Ga, and that we feel most sincerely that procure a charter to begin business with ging, and the question whether they will the success and unalloyed pleasure of this cotton bagging as a substitute, is now squarely before them, and it is right and entered suit against the Richmond & proper, as well as their duty, to take action Danville Rallroad Company for $25,000 in reference to the matter. In another column we publish an account of the meetand by reading it you will see what the Colbert Clinkscales, a little negro boy about 12 years of age, was arrested last Saturday and committed to Jail, under a charge of arson and house-breaking. The boy was employed by Dr. P. A. Wilhite, and last Thursday, while the family were absent from home, he entered the house through a window and stole a lot of jewelry. He then set fire to a small house in the yard, and but for the timely discovery of the fire by a member of the family, zens, under instructions from the Board | have spread to the adjoining buildings from the beginning to the end of his lecthat we can't do it justice. It was a fine ent with a large salary, and subordinates him missed a most instructive lecture.

The little fellow confessed to having a fire to of the case, and has sent the boy up to the Circuit Court.

Mr. W. F. Stokes, representing the Agency, with headquarters at Atlanta. Ga., spent several days in Anderson last week, and succeeded in organizing a local agency amongst our business men. This is something that has been needed by our business men and merchants for a long time, and will, in a large degree, prevent them from being imposed upon by deadwill be a benefit to him. Each member is required to report the names of his debtors to the Agency, and the names of those who refuse to pay their accounts by a certain time, are marked as delinquents in the commercial report, a copy of which member shall in any case give credit to ported to the Agency as not delinquent. All changes of residences of delinquents are noted and sent to the Agency, and its members living in other States and Coun-

Anderson Division, No. 1, Sons of Tem-

Pickens Sentinel: "Mr. John E. Brea- minutes entertained his hearers with one zeale brightened the Scatinel sanctum for a of the most interesting temperance adfew minutes last Tuesday. He is one of dresses we have ever listened to. At the mers of this section. A large body of men conclusion of the address, an invitation came together, representing nine Alliances, was extended to the friends of the Division to consider several subjects of much im-He is one of the acknowledged leaders in to accompany the members back to their portance. Hon: J. Belton Watson, and Hall, where it was proposed to spend the our County Business Agent, Mr. R. M. balance of the evening in social enjoyment. This invitation was accepted by a large Latimer, of Belton, were present and made portion of the audience, and in a short good speeches. Mr. W. C. Wright was time the Hall presented a most brilliant scene. The Division had prepared a grand was chosen Secretary of the meeting. treat for its friends in the shape of cake, Rev. M. McGee, who had just returned strawberries, ico cream, sherbet and from the Mississippi valley, made a very ther in serving these delicacies and contributing to the enjoyment of their visitors. | the world. Young men who think of go-It was 12 o'clock before the gay party had departed from the Hall, and every one present was loud in their praise of the success of the occasion. Old Ande on Division has done a great deal of good work in the recent fishing excursion to Southwest | this section, and it is to be hoped that it

The Fishing Party's Excursion, Those of our citizens whose good fortune ing else but the pleasures of the trip. They Georgia Central Railroad officials with much of the success of their trip to the many courtesies received at the hands of community. said officials. They do not hesitate to avow that no railroad can possibly have a from highest to lowest. The good people the stay of the Carolinians in their midst | fellow-citizens, shall it be done? leasant, and several of them gave much their time to teaching the boys the art | man, was in town last week. of low-country fishing. They seem to have they tell us of their wonderful success. It is certain that they brought back with them some of the finest fish that have ever

Our friends went down in a special car, had fresh fish at every meal from the time | night. of them stood their trip well, though they of their arrival until they left. Their car was side-tracked within one mile of the fishing grounds, and they put their stove tives on Broadmouth. under a small tent within twenty steps of to accommodate the delegates and visitors, the car. They slept in the car, and had and many of the former at times were una- their table spread in the shade near their stove and tent. This was evidently the most pleasant and successful fishing excursion ever organized here. We have just learned that another party here has already opened communications with the Central Company with a view of chartering a car for a trip to the same point. Capt. Walden, the popular conductor, and Gen. W. W. Humphreys, Director, both went down with the excursionists, and each of these gentlemen, we are told, devoted his entire time in looking after the comfort and een brought to town.

pleasure of the excursionists. We append a card of thanks to Capt. Walden, and learn that similar cards to Gen. Humphreys and other officials have been sent them: Resolved, That we express and convey to Capt. Gus. Walden, of the P. R. & W. C. Railroad Co., our heartful thanks and continue to use jute bagging or adopt trip is largely due to the superior arrangement and intelligent guidance of Conduc-M. P. TRIBBLE.

J. M. SULLIVAN.

MESSES. EDITORS: No one questions that as the very best remedy. Every bottle representative farmers assembled there a Graded School is a good thing; but some sold has given relief in every case. One recommend. of us who have money invested in the Military School, and who wish to invest more in the Female College, think that our present school system is sufficient. We think that it would seriously injure our present schools and proposed Female Colpresent schools and proposed Female College, and that it would be unwise to add more taxes on our tax-burdened people. We now have half a dozen fine schools located in different parts of the city, convenient to all our citizens, under the management of well educated teachers, who have their private means invested, with moderate rates of tuition, and have an eniable reputation as educators. These schools afford ample instruction for boys School, and for girls for entrance into a Female College. Now, if the Graded School would not injure or destroy these schools it would not be worth one-tenth of the taxes levied to sustain it. It would have to break them down to sustain itself. It is not often that our people have an If it did not injure the Military School and opportunity of listening to such an inter- proposed Female College it would not esting lecture as that delivered by Mr. R. | have the high standard which its friends H. Smith, of Georgia, in the Court House | claim for it. If the Military School and stenography in McGilvea College. Miss last Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Female College had thirty-five years the Anderson Library Association. His subject | start, as the College in Greenville, it might was "America as I have seen it," and | not break them down; but such is not the case, and we should remember that we are ture, he held the undivided attention of not quite as large 'as Greenville, and there his hearers, every one of whom seemed to are differences in other respects against us. regret when he had finished. We feel our The cases are by no means parallel. The inability to criticise the lecture, fearing | Graded School will require a Superintend-> literary treat, full of facts and figures, and | whose appointments must be agreeable to other valuable information, and no person | him. Likely he is in somebody's mind'scan listen to it without feeling proud that eye now, and ready for the work, espehe is an American. Mr. Smith is not a cially the salary. Admitting it to be a professional lecturer, but is one of the most good thing, would it be wise to invest so successful drummers on the road. He is much with such taxation? The fine buildnaturally endowed with rare descriptive ing, with all its modern conveniences and power, and at times it seemed that the improvements, would be well enough if scenes described were right before the eye. we were out of debt; but cities, towns and Those of our citizens who failed to hear school districts, like individuals, should have only such conveniencies as they can afford, for when they go beyond it they become bankrupt. A reasonable tax for Southern Retail Merchants' Commercial school purposes is just and proper, and no one complains at two mills, but add five mills to it and we have seven. This is unressonable, when we have 16? mills for still go, as required by the Constitution, to other purposes. The two mill tax must support schools without regard to color. &c. The citizen, with three children, who now pays fifty dollars, when in a Graded School it would cost him only fifteen, simply proves that thirty-five dollars comes from some other person's pocket. The writer believes strongly in education. He differs with some as to the mode of acquiring it. He believes that those who are able should educate their own children, and not let the schools suspend when the public money becomes exhaustwillingly, over and above their reasonable such person until said person has been re- taxes, to educate others; but one man's money should not be taken from him against his will to benefit another, because the majority of a community thinks it would be a good thing to do so. If this The Columbia correspondent of the ties can tell by referring to the report majority, on an average, pays less than Charleston World, under date of the 20th | whether the stranger who has just moved one-fifth of the taxes, while the forced conpartakes of communism. It should not be done where such taxation would be such holders of existing institutions to establish another to break them down. Having no interest in any except the Military School Mr. E. E. Henderson, one of E. W. perance, celebrated the 21st anniversary of risk losing all the possible benefits which the Graded School might give these promising seats of learning. Then let us stand by the two mill tax, if the County does get > some of it, and not ruin ourselves by taxing more.

> H. Nachman, Orcenville, S. C., buys Write for price list.

Large lot of sample Whips for sale at wholesale cost by C. A. Reed, Anderson, Hones Path Items. Last Saturday was a big day for the fai-Burriss, of Anderson, also Mr. A. C. made Chairman, and Hon. G. W. Mattison emonade, and the members vied with each encouraging talk to the farmers present He thinks that we have the garden spot of ing "West" ought to think of this before they make up their minds to go. Miss Ellen Gary, who has been teaching a writing school here, left on yesterday for Greenwood. Her pupils made considerable improvement during the school. We hope she will come and teach again. Miss Bettle Earle, and sister, of Starr, are visiting in our town. We are glad to have them visit us.

Quite a crowd of our citizens assembled t was to go on the Fishing Excursion to at the Academy last Friday to witness & Ogeechee, Ga., last week, now talk of noth- match between the boys and girls in Gergraphy. It seemed to surprise everybody speak in terms of highest praise of all the to see the pupils so well posted. The reason of that is because they are bright whom they came in contact, and attribute children, and have the very best teacher. A good teacher is a great blessing to any

Our school building is not what it ought to be, and it seems to me that our people etter set of men filling its various offices, ought to come together at once and make arrangements to enlarge and in many ways of Ogeechee did all in their power to render to improve the house. What say you, Mr. J. C. Boozer, the popular "Hat"

Rev. R. P. Estes preached a very intereen apt scholars, if we are to believe half esting sermon at Barker's Crrck last Sunday. Rev. W. K. Boggs, of Pickens, was in town last week. Rev. Mr. Craig, of Ninety Six, preached a very thoughtful and comforting sermon earrying with them a cook and porter, and in the Presbyterian Church Sunday

Mrs. Corrie and Miss Minnie Jamison, of Piercetown, are visiting friends and rela-

Some of our young people attended Church at Belton last Sunday. One of our young men was conspiconsly absent from Church Sunday night. We hate to accuse him of going a fishing on Sunday night, but we have reason to believe that he was on Broadmouth, and what else could people go to Broadmouth for, but to fish. We are sorry to learn that Mrs. J. J.

Shirley has been quite sick, but glad to eport her improving. Rumor says that about a dozen men drunk, or nearly so, were seen on the streets Saturday. Think of that, and this MESSENGER.

A Woman's Discovery. "Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cored. Her name is Mrs. Luther Latz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at Hill Bros'. Drug Store.

The Verdict Unanimous. W. D. Suit, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., tesmmend Electric Bitter verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Hill Bros.' Drug Store.

JONES & CO Blank Books and Memorandums in end-ess variety at Watkin's Book Store. Books of fiction and all kinds of station ery at Watkins' Book Store. If you want to sell your old wrough, iron and cast iron, write to H. Nachmant Greenville, S. C., for prices.

Specialties Reported by Sullivan Hard-

A prominent farmer of Orangeburg County briefly, yet expressively, writes the Sullivan Hardware Co. that "the Penningnington Side Harrow is received, and i Nothing but praise for the "Pennington" from every source, and the sales of these implements are swelling with every gale.

A leading planter of Anderson County volunteers the following information in regard to the Victor Heel Sweep, for which Splitten Hardware County Sullivan Hardware Co. are sole agents: "The Victor Heel Sweep is far ahead of any other. I tried other Patent Sweeps last year, and after a thorough test with the Victor I am prepared to say that it far excels them all, being much easier adjusted, and filling the bill in every respect,"

It is wonderful how quick the celebrated "14 finger Josh Berry Grain Cradle" has driven all competitors out of the field driven all competitors out of the field. Buy the genuine "Josh Berry" of the Sullivan Hardware Co.

H. Nachman, Greenville, S. C., pays the highest cash price for old copper and brass. Seed cotton, loose cotton and damaged cotton of all kinds are bought by H. Nachman, Greenville, S. C.

Shingles for Sale. If you want Shingles call on C. E. Hor ton, at Williamston, and get them at bot-H. Nachman, Greenville, S. C., buys rags, beeswax and tallow. Big lot of 5, 10 and 15 cent Tinware a You can get a good price for ginsen and snakeroot by writing to H. Nachman, Greenville, S. C.

Best 5-cent cigar in town at Watkins' H. Nachman, Greenville, S. C., will buy sheep-skins, coon-skins, muskrat-skins and otter-skins. Full line of choice Chromos and Oil Paintings at WATKINS' BOOK STORE.

If you want to get a good price for your ry salt hides and dry flint hides, write to H. Nachman, Greenville, S. C. Buy your choice Timothy Hay from John E. Peoples. Sold cheap for spot

Canary Birds for Sale,-Apply

t INTELLIGENCER Office.

Persons wishing Pianos and Organs ned or repaired, can have their work promptly executed by leaving orders at C. A. Reed's Music House. Best Buggies and Carriages in the city for sale by C. A. Reed.

O. and O. TEA

It is the Highest Grade Leaf, picked from the best plantations and guaranteed absolutely pure and free from all adulterations or coloring matter. The packages are hermatically sealed matter. The packages are hermetically scaled and warranted full weight. It is more econ-omical in use than the lower grades. Oriental & Occidental Tea Co., L't'd: Head Office, 35 Burling Slip, New York.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

A MOST DELICIOUS BEVERAGE. TRY IT.

For Sale by McCULLY, CATHCART & CO., Anderson, S. C.

are

Clothing

H

all

ALB

Shoes, blow, Clothing ONE PRICE Clothing

Store

E.

Anderson

2 2

SHOES

M 0 カーの (1) RFIELD 0 TA AC

PRINCE the Newest Styles and most Fashionable

Goods.

LOWEST PRICES EVER REACHED.

JUST LISTEN!

1,000 yards double-width White Lawn at 5c.

1,000 yards Laces and Embroideries from Ic. up.

1,000 yards Chambrays and Ginghams, very cheap.

REMEMBER, these Goods are from a big auction sale North, and cannot be match-

WHITE EMBROIDERY FLOUNCINGS.

Just received, another big stock for Ladies and Children. They are perfectly beautiful. Our sales have been immense, because we sell them for less than many pay for BLACK SILK FLOUNCINGS.

Are all the rage. Our second stock Gipure and Chantilly Flouncings are lovely. adles, don't buy a Black Lace Dress until you see this stock.

DRESS GOODS and TRIMMINGS.

More new Dress Goods. Our stock in this line is magnificent, with beautiful Persian Braids to match. Also, Silks, Satins and Plushes in endless variety. A few Dress Patterns China Silks very cheap to close them out.

NOTIONS.

Best Corsets, Mitts, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Ruchings, Hosiery, and everything the heart could wish for at the very lowest prices.

CASSIMERES and COTTONADES.

1,000 MEN'S and BOYS' HATS.

We are overstocked, and they must go. All new, pretty styles in white and mixed Straws. Don't buy until you see this stock—we won't stand on prices.

SHOES and SLIPPERS.

Ladies, our new style Laced Slippers are just what you want for the warm weather. Also, an immense stock Fine Shoes for Men, Ladies and Children. You all know we have our Shoes made to our order—no paper soles allowed to come into our Store. Come, we have the largest assortment to be found in Anderson, Our prices are the lowest.

MATTINGS, MATTINGS.

SHIRTS and COLLARS.

CLOTHING, CLOTHING.

Another new lot Clothing. Our pretty Light Colored Suits reduced in price. Alpacca and Seersucker Coats very cheap. Look at our new Clothing before you buy.

SPECIAL INVITATION

To our Lady friends this month to call and see our White Goods and Swiss Floun-

C. F. JONESI& CO.

Come and look at the best 50c. and 75c. Shirt in the world.

Very cheap, all new colors and pretty.

1,000 yards Cable Checks, lovely Goods, at 10c., worth

1,000 yards Check Nainsook at 5c.

fully 15c.

ed at such prices elsewhere. Come early, before they are all sold.

They are offering Special Drives for the month In checks and stripes-all new pat terns-8c. per yard, well worth 10c. them coming in every week. H

A GREAT AND ATTRACTIVE SALE!

Spring and Summer Novelties

JONES, SEYBT & CO'S.

600 THH: 04

DRY GOODS MERCHANTS!

2,500 Yards Dress Ginghams,

Wool Dress Goods. In this department it is useless for us to start to price them, as we are selling a real nice Dress Goods now at 5c per yard -former price 10c-and you can get the other grades cheaper than they have ever Silks. For this line of goods we are, and have been Headquarters. Competitors are wondering where we get those nice Surah Silks to sell at 50c per yard; and then you can get such a big line of colors 750 Yards Distingue Challies, Real good styles-sold everywhere at and 10c-we have cut the price to 61c per yard. Sateens.

We have a large and attractive stock of Sateens, in solid and fancy colorings. Note these prices: 500 yards ? Sateen at 10c-good value at 121c; and we can give you a beautiful line at 121c, where others ask you 15c. And you must come and look at those beautiful French Goods -the prettiest line ever shown in Ander-

This department is so well known that t is uscless for us to advertise it. We have them in prices from 10c to $5.00. of them. You can't find them in town | You ought to see our Black Silk Parasols for less than 65c per yard. We have at $1.25-something others want $1.75 for; we sell them at $1.25. Dress trimmings. We wish to call special attention to our large and varied assortment of Dress

Parasols.

Trimmings, including some of the latest novelties in Persian Bands, Ornaments Gimps, Sets, Etc., to match any color, and suit every style, at very low prices.

e are receiving a new lot nearly every week. Come and look at the new shapes. MISS PERCIVAL will be with us about six weeks longer, and we want to see you with a hat of her trimming on, if you have never had one, and if you have

MATTINGS.

Many thanks for past patronage.

ONE MINUTE, PLEASE.

FOR THE BEST GOODS FOR THE LEAST MONEY, CALL ON

SECOND STOCK SUMMER GOODS. E. W. BROWN =-

HEY are clever, conscientious fellows, and being a new Firm with a trade to ROCK BOTTOM PRICES.

THEIR ENTIRE STOCK IS

YOU WILL FIND THERE A SPLENDID LINE OF Gents' Ready Made Clothing,

MOST COMPLETE STOCK Hats, Cravats, Boots, Shoes LADIES' SHOES EVER BROUGHT TO THIS MARKET.

THEIR DRY GOODS STOCK

Satines, Batiste,

At prices so low they will astonish you. Their Grocery Room IS FILLED WITH

PLANTATION SUPPLIES

And their prices on FLOUR will "DOWN" anything in the market. Their Ho Plows, Plow Stocks, Shovels, Trace Chains, Collars, &c., are sold at prices cannot fail to build up a trade.

E. W. BROWN & SONS.

JORDAN HOUSE. MRS. E. C. JORDAN, Proprietress. Rates Reasonable,

all, our buyer secured this last Stock at prices you cannot match elsewhere. Make our Store your home when in Anderson—we will do all we can to make it pleasant for you. tion given to guests. April 25, 1889

Don't buy before getting our pr THE GEO. W. STOCKELL CO., me this paper. Nashville, Tenr. Loril 4, 1889 39 4

ROAD CARTS! Everything Wheels. 10 per cent cheaper BUGGE

cings. Our Store has been thronged with delighted customers all Spring. We regret that many could not be waited upon, and had to trade elsewhere. Our new stock surpasses anything we have ever offered in cheapness and quality. We cordially ask every Lady to call again. All acknowledge our Stock the largest, most beautiful, and best of PRIVATE and Transient Board solicit-ed. The table is supplied with the best the market affords, and every atten-

We still have a few more pieces of Mattings left, and will give you a bargain We are still closing out our Carpets at Cost!

JONES, SEYBT & CO.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING

-= & SONS.

THEIR STOCK IS SIMPLY IMMENSE!

build up, they are selling at-

BRAN NEW AND FRESH

Is full of the most attractive SPRING STYLES of Ladies' Fine Dress Goods

Don't buy anything until you try at Another big lot beautiful Hats, Ribbons, Plumes, Flowers, Etc., just received. We are proud to say our Millinery has taken the lead in Anderson. Hundreds of Ladies who have bought from us say our Hats are so beautifully trimmed, and such an immense stock to select from that any lady can be pleased. Challies, Ginghams. Lawns, Laces, Bleachings, Sheetings, Shirtings, Checks and Domestics of every description. Low-Ribbons, &c.,